

Day 45 - Keys to Favor “★★★★★”

Wednesday, January 8, 2020

“These are the ones I look on with favor: those who are humble and contrite in spirit and who tremble at my word.” (Isaiah 66:2)

Are you desiring to see an outpouring of God’s favor in your life in 2020? I certainly am. In Isaiah 66:2, God tells us what is necessary to obtain His favor. He says, “These are the ones I look on with favor: those who are humble and contrite in spirit and who tremble at my word.” To be humble means to not act in a way that esteems yourself higher than others, and making yourself available to render service to God and to others. In Philippians 2:7, it is said of Jesus, “But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant...” To be contrite in spirit means that when we do wrong or sin, we are remorseful and seek atonement from God. “And who tremble at my word” are those that recognize that God’s Word is power and life and is to be cherished and obeyed. We are reminded in Proverbs 9:10 that, “the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom”. God is looking for people who will choose to walk in His way and be an example of His goodness, love and mercy. In return, He promises to pour out His favor which includes divine guidance, protection, health, provision, abundance, longevity and extended blessings even to your offspring, city and nation. I pray that as you set your heart and mind on God and seek to follow Christ’s example, that you will see God’s favor flowing in every part of your life.

Prayer: “Lord thank you for desiring to exhibit your favor in my life. Help me to walk humbly, to be contrite of spirit and to hold your Word in the highest regard that I may obtain an outpouring of your favor. Make me a testimony that others will be drawn to you. In Jesus’ name I pray. Amen.”

Pray for God’s continued guidance, protection, provision and success for Cliffard Whitby (Macon-Bibb 2020 mayoral candidate) and the Whitby2020 campaign team and supporters. Pray that God would grow and increase this movement and energize individuals to co-labor with us for positive change.
